 coming in 2015: a members-only weekend retreat chock full of ritual, magic, and song!

Your generous Scholarship provides:

- Original texts and handouts authored by Temple of the Feminine Divine Clergy for the Ordination classes
- Classroom supplies
- Trained, ordained clergy for facilitators and teachers
- Friendly sacred space in which to hold meetings, classes, and experiential learning sessions
- Priceless hours of education and self discovery to future clergy members
- Continuous education for currently ordained clergy
- Security knowing that the vibrant Pagan community that currently exists will continue to thrive under the guidance of ordained clergy.

Becoming a Sponsor ensures:

- Well trained, legally ordained clergy will be available to facilitate both public ritual and private ceremony in the Greater Bangor area
- Beautiful, comfortable sacred space devoted to the Goddess in all Her forms will continue to be located in the heart of Downtown Bangor
- Pagan pastoral counseling in the Greater Bangor area.
- Unique workshops, classes, presentations, and events hosted by knowledgeable community members and clergy will continue to be available to the public.
- Your business will be advertised regularly in our newsletter and added to any programs we put together for special events.

 Sponsors receive membership and all membership benefits.
